Revue de presse

With more substance than your average coffee-table tome, Babe is a thought-provoking photo collection that sees Canadian snapper Petra Collins, 21, curating the coolest artists' explorations of female identity, and fashion editor Tavi Gevinson, 18, writing the foreword. It's feminism 2015 style. --Marie Claire UK, June Edition 2015

An insightful book for both sexes on the delicate, challenging and often conflicting theme of female identity. --Hotshoe Summer 2015

this is a must-read for creative, future feminists. --Irish Tatler, May 2015
Présentation de l'éditeur
Young Canadian photographer Petra Collins is leading the way in a contemporary girl power revolution that proves feminism and sexuality aren't mutually exclusive. Babe includes work by Collins as well as over 30 artists who have been part of her online collective The Ardorous. Though their work is aesthetically varied, it all represents a current zeitgeist characterised by explorations of female identity, scrutinisation of the role of the Internet and social media and a penchant for pastel colours. The artists in the book, such as Arvida Bystrom, Sandy Kim, Harley Weir, Jeanette Hayes and Kristie Muller, hail from a variety of places, including New York, London, Moscow, Stockholm, Los Angeles, Berlin, and Toronto. Together they reflect an all-accepting, affirming, distinctly female point of view that teens and young women everywhere can respond to. With a foreword by Tavi Gevinson, writer, actress, fashion blogger and creator of Rookie Magazine, this is an inspiring collection for a new generation of creative, forward-thinking women.
